

Ideas for playing at home

1. With colored masking tape, take four pieces 1 and 1/2 feet long. Place them on the floor first 1 foot apart, then 1.5, then 2, and then 3 feet. Children can be challenge to jump the lines, until the end.
2. Bead noodles with string to create a necklace or bracelet to play or give as a present.
3. Go around the house looking for things that come in set of 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 12.
4. Take square pieces of cloth and fold them over one side and then over the other side. Now you have folded a piece of material. You can now fold a blanket to. Practice with a piece of paper. See
5. Help pair up socks for the person who does laundry at home. Don't forget to match!
6. Get an empty paper roll, color it with markers, glue collage materials and it can be used as a telescope for you to look around the house or out the window.
7. Time for spring-cleaning. Sort out your toys by making two piles. The ones you really use and the once you don't. You can put the ones you don't use in a large bag and donate them to the church or to the Salvation Army.
8. Play bowling with the water bottles you use. Set them up 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. Roll a ball to knock them down.
9. Get daddy's shaving crème and play at a table. Spray a small amount on the table and you can add one or two drops of food coloring.

10. Get a ruler and measure a book, a can, a pencil, a water bottle, doll, a power figure, a block, etc, etc.
11. Practice singing: 1 2 Buckle my shoe, Old Macdonald, Bingo, If you are Happy and you know it Clap your Hands, Five Little Ducks, Five Little Monkeys, Where is Thumbkin, Hurry Hurry, Twinkle Twinkle Little Star, The Insy Winsy Spider, Los Pollitos and any song you know.
12. Practice Yoga Postures and your breathing skills.
13. Write letters and draw pictures to your friends, family and teachers.
14. Take two sizes of cups when it is your bath time and measure the weights.
15. Read every night or tell your mommy or daddy a nice story before you go to bed.

CHAO!!! UNTIL NEXT TIME